REMARKS.—The market, this week, has been quite active, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, and closes firm. The receipts of produce have, materially, increased, owing, in a great measure, to the reopening of the Manassas | W. A. Smoot & Co., Gwin & Beckham, W. K. Gap Railroad, from whence a large portion of Armistead, Geo. Y. Worthington, Geo. Washthe Grain, now offering, is brought. Flour is firm, with an upward tendency, especially for high grades; Welch's and Januey's Extra and Family readily commanding our outside fignre--stocks on hand light. Wheat is very firm, at an advance; demand active. Corn has been fluctuating, but closes very firm, at an advance; the figures in our table showing higher prices than those paid in Baltimore, with a brisk demand. Oats are quiet. Rye active, at an advance. Hay steady, with a good demand. Salt in fair request. Butter, common, dull with large stocks on hand; prime in fair request, but prices tending down. Eggs dull, with fair re-

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, May 2.-Beef Cattle-The offerings at the Scales during the past week amounted to 6:8 head, against 658 last week. Owing to a bare supply this week and light receipts last week, the market was firm to-day, with an upward tendency. Of the receipts 130 head were sold to Washington butchers, 30 head to government agents, and the remainder taken by Baltimore butchers. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Old Cows and Scalawags at $6a6 5); common Cattle $8 25a 875; fair $875a925; good $950, and prime $9 75 per 100 lbs, with a few very extra Cattle at prices a shade higher.

Sheep-Supply fair this week. Sales of clipped Sheep at 6a7c per lb gross. But few with tleece on sale. Hogs—Supply about equal to the demand; sales at $11a11 50 per 100 lbs net.

BALTIMORE MARKET, May 2.-Breadstuffs-The market for Flour continues inactive. Receipts of Grain were again very light, and with an active demand. Corn was firmer and prices advanced about 2c for white.

DRY Goods TRADE.—The New York Independent says: "Trade has been fairly active.—The long looked-for "rush" has not come, and cannot now be expected. Goods of nearly all atill tending downward. Cotton, however, is firmer and higher for the moment; but that fact will not materially help the price of manufactured goods the present season.

The money market, in New York, was never more fully supplied than at present, and the rate of interest is four or five per cent on call loans; and six or seven on stocks or other securities. The current of money now sets strongly from the interior towns to the commercial

GRAIN MARKET .- By reference to the report of our market, (carefully revised and corrected every other day,) it will be seen that there has been great activity in the grain trade during the week just closing, and that the prices of country, which covered the ground. paid here compare, most favorably with those obtained in the larger cities with which Alexandria is in direct competition. The receipts of 0 00 grain have increased materially in consequence 0 00 of the re-opening of the Manassas Gap Rail road to Piedmont, from whence large quanti-want of transportation, are now flowing in and find a ready market. The favorable results of the re-opening of this road for a comparatively short distance, are but an index of the great benefits to accrue to our city when it shall have been rebuilt and reach the heart of the Valley of Virginia.

FENIAN MEETING -A large and enthusiastic meeting of Sarsfield Circle of the Fenian Brotherhood, of this city, was held last night, in the hall of the Friendship Fire Company. The committee appointed for the purpose, some time since, reported through their Chairman a constitution and by-laws for the future government of the Circle, which after a debate of considerable length were unanimously adopted. Mr. D. M. Furlong was, without opposition, elected Head Centre, in place of Capt. Murphy, whose resignation had been tendered and accepted. The office of Door-keeper to the Circle was abolished, and that of Sergeant at-Arms created. The meetings of the Circle will descriptions have declined in price, and are hereafter be held on the night of the first Thursday in each month.

The bone of contention in the radical ward meetings now is, whether it is expedient to place one or more colored meu in nomination for ward officers.

Yesterday afternoon Clarvoe and McDevitt arrested a man named McNamar, barkeeper at the Wallach House, on Eleventh street, on the charge of robbing his employer, Mr. Patrick O'Brien, of $81. Mr. O'Brien's statement is, that McNamar mixed a drink for him and drugged it. He then committed the robbery. Mr. O'Brien further states that while the robbery was being perpetrated he had full possession of all his faculties except speech and motion, and could see McNamar take the money from him.
